Publication as evidence

(3) Publication in the Gazette of a notice purporting to be by the Director that any member of the clergy named therein has been registered as authorized to solemnize marriage during a period fixed in the notice shall in all courts be conclusive evidence of such registration and of the authorization and qualification of the member to solemnize marriage during the period so fixed. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. M-5, s.8. Publication of notice of registration, effect

8.1 (1) The Director may, on application, issue a marriage commissioner's license to any person authorizing that person to act as a marriage commissioner for the province, if Marriage commissioner

- (a) the application is submitted to the Director in the form, and containing the information, required by the Director;
- (b) the person pays the fee required by the regulations; and
- (c) the Director is satisfied that the person
 - (i) is 18 years of age or over, and
 - (ii) meets any other qualifications or requirements established by the regulations.

(2) A marriage commissioner's license shall specify the date it commences to have effect, and such a license expires three years from the date on which it is specified to have come into effect unless it is sooner cancelled. Term of license

(3) A marriage commissioner may, prior to the expiry of his or her marriage commissioner's license, apply to the Director for the renewal Renewal thereof, and if the Director has no reason to believe that the marriage commissioner is in violation of this Act or the regulations the Director shall renew the marriage commissioner's license upon payment of the prescribed fee.

Lapse

(4) A person who fails to renew his or her marriage commissioner's license on or before the date of its expiry to the Director, ceases, upon the expiry of the marriage commissioner's license, to be entitled to solemnize a marriage under this Act.

Late renewal Re-application of the expiry of license

(5) Where the marriage commissioner's license of a person expires before it is renewed under subsection (3), the person must, if he or she wishes to be issued a new marriage commissioner's license, make an application under subsection (1).

Cancellation

(6) The Director may, at any time, cancel the marriage commissioner's license of a marriage commissioner where the Director is satisfied that

- (a) the marriage commissioner has failed to comply with a provision of this Act or the regulations or a request of the Director made under subsection (4); or
- (b) the cancellation is otherwise in the public interest.

Fee

(7) A marriage commissioner who solemnizes a ceremony of marriage is entitled to receive from the parties to the marriage any fee for his or her services as may be agreed upon by the marriage commissioner and the parties to the marriage. 2005,c.12,s.3.

Requirements for solemnization

9. (1) No registered member of the clergy, justice or marriage commissioner shall solemnize marriage

- (a) except under the authority of a marriage license issued to the parties pursuant to this Act, for the solemnization of the marriage by the member, justice or a marriage commissioner;
- (b) except within three months after the date of the issue of the license; and
- (c) except in the presence of the parties and at least two credible adult witnesses.
